

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Our law has been so effective in stopping the unwanted phone calls from solicitors that we can rest assured that, when the phone rings, the caller knows us and has reason to call. Our dinners are now uninterrupted and no more calls at 8:00 on a Saturday morning - our only chance to get eight hours of sleep!